OUKAN 71'S
IN-STORE
TEA BAR

BERLIN

Progressive Japanese labels find a home away from home in the boldly modern, loft-inspired Oukan 71. Around the corner from fashion flagships such as Bottega Veneta in the Friedrichstrasse district, the boutique carries ambitious Japanese fashion such as the androgynous, S&M-influenced Dummyhead Depaysemen line alongside avant-garde international designs. Come for the futuristic fashion, stay for a bite—the in-store tea bar serves fish as well as raw, vegan and vegetarian cuisine. Kronenstrasse 71.

DEB
NELSON

HALIFAX

Designer darling DEB NELSON (Design Rivals, Steven and Chris) continues to inspire home decor fans with her "no rules" style savvy, this time at her flagship store NELSON & CO. Smartly curated cottage-luxe looks mixed from a wide array of eras and ethnicities include vintage-chic furniture (think antique desks and oversized wingback chairs) and on-trend home accents (fair-trade woven baskets and vibrant toss pillows). 5881 Almon St.

FLORENCE

For years, fashion types have been flocking to the Tuscan hills and converging at THE MALL, Italy's most exclusive outlet centre. There you'll find Valentino, Dior, Marni, Yves Saint Laurent, Burberry, Balenciaga and Gucci—all at seeing-is-believing bargain prices—not to mention a divine, all-in-one Alexander McQueen and Stella McCartney shop. (Bonus: Not far away is that Holy Grail of designer shopping: The Prada outlet.) Refuel at the slickly designed Dot. Com café, where a pizza bianca and tiramisu are just what the shopper ordered. Via Europa 8, Leccio Reggello.

WINNIPEG

The fact that Winnipeggers can finally pack away their down parkas makes the opening of the city's first Kiehl's store especially sweet. Now local beautistas can soften skin with Crème de Corps Body Moisturizer, Lip Balm and Ultra Facial Cream. Call it the next best thing to spring. 162 Spence St.
