Fall looks to wear now and love even more later

Wool/polyamide-blend dress, $230, Dace. For where-to-buy, see Stylesource.

Cotton, $40, H&M.

Wool, approximately $315, Grace Sun.

ONE FOR ALL

As we transition into fall, why not give your perennial frocks a night off and try a softly tailored jumpsuit. Fret not, these aren't the skintight onesies or unflattering flight suits of yesteryear but, rather, streamlined, sexy and surprisingly sophisticated fashion alternatives. An instant route to easy throw-on chic, they're perfect for balmy summer days and, when layered up, exude an aura of urban cool as the cold sets in.

TOMMY HILFINGER

TUX REDUX

An essential addition to your well-packed closet, this girlish take on the tux is a versatile pick for all seasons and occasions.

Leather, approximately $135, Carolina Amato.

glove affair

Boost your street cred with King Karl-approved appendages. Fingerless gloves marry form and function, not to mention scoring a perfect 10 in the fashion stakes.

KARL LAGERFELD

Satin/pleather, $50, Abaeté for Payless.

hot stepper

A shoe in a shocking shade updates your go-to summer separates and adds oomph to fall outfits.

CHAIN GANG

We love homegrown gal Arielle de Pinto's crocheted creations. The Montrealer's armour-like accoutrements are renegade and refined—a bold way to get in on the burgeoning warrior trend. Nickel necklace, $400.

EDITOR'S PICK:

A sleek patent finish and scaled-down shape make this bag the perfect accessory for the girl on the go, 24/7, year-round. Patent leather, $138, Roots.
